The Coast

The Coast offers an unparalleled fine dining experience using only the highest quality local ingredients. Designed by our executive chef, Chris Barlow, our menu features Australian fusion dishes and exquisite desserts.

Complimenting our local produce menu are some of the region's best wines and unique cocktails from our local distilleries.

Private Dining

Modern and elegantly styled, our separate dining room provides the privacy you need. A bespoke timber banquet-style table caters for up to 20 guests. Our dedicated waitstaff provide an exceptional service, with customised food and beverage packages available depending on your style.

Spa & Wellness

Lux Spa

Unwind and escape the noise of the outside world in our luxurious day spa. Relieve stress with our indulgent and restorative therapies.

Corporate packages are available, including local sparkling wine and spa cuisine to share in our relaxation lounge. Beautifully presented gift vouchers are perfect for staff incentives, to use during their stay, or so they can come back and rejuvenate whenever they like.

Corporate Retreats

Our Corporate Retreats at Great Ocean Road Resort offer your team customised sessions to improve well-being and resilience.

Designed for groups of 1 to 10, employees, managers and directors will learn techniques to provide novel and engaging ways to recharge and be re-inspired, reducing the risk of burnout. Designed by our corporate wellness director, Michelle Moloney, our retreats focus on specific outcomes to help your team generate new ideas, return to work with a clearer mind and gain an improved sense of well-being. Retreat sessions are targeted towards positive mindset, time management, nutritional health and mindfulness.

Our spa therapists can take you on the complete wellness journey during your retreat offering spa treatments, nutrition consultations, reiki, kinesiology, shiatsu and infrared sauna. Our therapeutic and Shirodhara massages will help reduce muscle tension, fatigue, stress and anxiety.

Great Ocean Road Resort provides the perfect coastal location to help you connect with nature. We have taken the stress out of planning with indulgent spa treatments, contemporary cuisine prepared by our chefs and experienced facilitators, all at your fingertips. Our wellness director will work with you to create a customised retreat as unique as your team.

Amanda Tavares

Our certified Yoga teacher and Ashtanga practitioner, Amanda, has worked in communities all over the world in projects of rehabilitation and social reintegration through the Yoga practice. Her classes are focused on strengthening the physical body and supporting mental health including managing stress and anxiety. Amanda's style of teaching incorporates practices that release tension from the respiratory system, improving the efficiency of breathing patterns inside and outside the mat.

Jo Hand

Jo is a qualified practitioner of Nutritional Medicine and Kinesiologist at Lux Spa & Wellness. Her gentle and caring nature instantly has clients feeling calm and comfortable. Jo is dedicated to helping individuals discover what is holding them back. Sessions can be targeted to improve specific areas of focus such as stress, anxiety, sleep quality, gut health, hormone health, behavioural issues, pain and discomfort, headaches and jaw pain or general well-being.

Team building

Find a unique activity that reflects your business values. Guided nature walks, yoga or meditation sessions on the beach, a local winery or distillery tour and Indigenous experiences are just some of the activities your delegates can enjoy. Let your team explore their creative side with an art workshop or pottery class at the local art house here in Anglesea.

For the wellness focussed, start the day with a change of scenery, Anglesea has no shortage of bush or beach locations perfect for a morning meditation session. For something more hands-on, strengthen relationships and connect with nature while giving back to a local community group.

- Guided tour of the Surf Coast Walk
- Yoga or meditation session
- Local craft spirit or wine tasting
- Group pottery or art workshop
- Indigenous experience & education
- Community support programs
